the city to-day.

P. L. Harned, of Corbandale, was in the city Saturday.

Mr. M. Savage and J. W. Stout spoke at Palmyra to-day.

Beautiful moonlight night's, but don't stay out in the cold too late.

A large crowd of people from the country were on our streets to-day.

Dr. Trawick's residence will be sold

Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

The Ladies' Gymnasium Society met for the first time this afternoon.

Mrs. Capt. Tom Herndon went to the country to-day, taking her little ones on a nutting excursion.

Lieutenant-Colonel Gracey Childers, is visiting relatives in Eddy-ville, Ky.

Col. John F. House and wife, have taken rooms at the Arlington hotel for the present.

The foundation has been commenced for Mr. C. S. Daniels', new livery stable east of the court house.

Mr. David Kincannon to-day is in a much worse condition, and his friends are fearing the saddest results.

If you want the very best candies, fruits, etc., call on W. R. Quinn &

The Obion Democrat at Union City published a splendid illustrated trade issue last week. The illustrations were of the best we have seen and the general appearance of the paper does great credit to Messrs. Tatum &

Griffey.

A RUNAWAY TRIO.

Three Memphis Boys Out On a Lark are Captured in This City.

Late Yesterday afternoon a hungry and footworn boy about thirteen years old strolled into the telegraph office and told Operator Pearce that he was a son of Operator Chase at Memphis. His story of privations and nothing to eat for about thirty hours was interesting to listen to, but it amounted to the fact that young

Chase, John Riley and Jacob Trube, American Irishman, and Jew, had picked up their duds and left Memphis for the purpose of emigrating to foreign lands in order to improve their financial condition. They arrived at Clarksville without a nickle in their pockets and finally got hungry. Mr. Pearce the clever Western Union operator gave his key a tip to his chum at Memphis and in a short time received instructions to send the runaways back home. The orders were complied with and a telegram was received this morning to the effect that the boys were at home safe and sound.

One event that occurred at the meal last night should not be omitted.

It appears that Chase was a Protestant, Riley was a Catholic and Trube an Israelite. The hotel people brought them a nice piece of roast pork, which on being offered to Riley, he refused because it was Friday.

Trube said he could not partake of it because it was hog meat and his creed said he must refrain. Chase looked at the morsel and told his chums to pass it over to him, and that he would let them hear more about it to-day.

The career of these three boys in Clarksville caused lots of fun.

TOBACCO TALK.

The Farmers of Christian County Rally to Their Interests.

To the Chronicle:

BELL'S, Ky., Oct., 20—There are people here this afternoon from all parts of this tobacco belt, as well as from Union and Henderson counties.

The occasion is a convention of tobacco raisers who by resolutions just passed have formed themselves into an organization opposed to raising tobacco next year. The action of this meeting is in concert with a similar one held at Princeton a few days since, which had the same objects in view.

Judging from the sentiment expressed from the speaker's stand, there will be no tobacco raised in the Clarksville district next year.

University Data.

The Literary societies held their regular meetings last night. Washington Irving Society gave her members optional attendance, but the Stewart did not. In the Washington Irving Society Allen "came off" with his combined humor and good sense for which he is justly noted.

Goodman was the sensation in Stewart Society. According to their new constitution the Stewarts elected the two following officers for the remainder of the term: Chaplain, J.

M. Sykes; Sergeant-at-arms, J. H.

Scrogin.

The new gate is not exactly a "gate," but a contrivance for keeping out stock and through which people may pass. It is an arrangement somewhat like a fishtrap, that lets the small fish pass and catches the large ones.

The arrangement does not meet with Mr. Bostwick's hearty approval on account of his extensive corporation. Mr. Young, J. A., however, is very much delighted with it. The only trouble is that it will be very inconvenient to ladies, unless the present style of dressing is changed.

The usual declamatory exercises were not held in chapel this morning.

The devotional exercises were conducted in the cabinet hall.

The University suspended exercises after 11 o'clock to-day in order that the students might attend the addresses of Dr. Cannon and Dr. McCauley at the Presbyterian church. It was regretted that Dr. Cannon was sick.

Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows has been in session at Chattanooga this week. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Grand Master, John L. Nolan, of

Nashville; Deputy Grand Master,

Peter Harris, Jr., of Nashville; Grand Warden, Philip Elchorn, of
